WHERE THEY PLAY TO-DAY.

Richmond at Norfolk.

Petersburg at Newport News.

Norfolk, Va., July 6.—Richmond and Phillips broke even in today's double-header this afternoon. The opener went to the losers, and the afternoon to the Colts. The winning teams scored five runs in the triumphs, and in both the vanquished did not score until the ninth inning. The counts were 5 to 2 for Norfolk and 5 to 1 for Richmond.

In the first, Cochran was wild and uneasy, but exceedingly effective in the pluses, while the Tars hit Ramey freely. In the second, the Tars had much Grimes for the Tars. In the follow-up, for the Tars did not get a man beyond second base until the ninth. The Tars were San Hall from the mound in the ninth, the second of the first game won for the losers. In the second the Phillips bumped Terreau for four runs in the firstinning, and swatted Demaree for three runs in the second.
